GOOD TO KNOW

Taxation on Hong Kong Limited Companies is unique in that it's based on source and not on residence. As long as a Hong Kong company does not conduct any business in Hong Kong, and does not generate any income from Hong Kong-based sources, the company will not be taxable in Hong Kong.

JURISDICTION INFORMATION

Hong Kong is an autonomous territory on the southern coast of China at the Pearl River Estuary and the South China Sea. It has an area of 1104 km² and shares its northern border with the Guangdong Province of mainland China. Home to around 7.2 million people, Hong Kong is one of the world's most densely populated metropolises. Until 1997, Hong Kong was under British administration, however, as a result of negotiations between China and Britain, Hong Kong was transferred to the People's Republic of China to become a special administrative region of China with a high degree of autonomy under the principle of one country, two systems. The territory has developed into a major global trade hub and financial centre, and is regarded as a world city. The 45th-largest economy in the world, Hong Kong ranks top 10 in GDP (PPP) per capita.

POLITICAL STRUCTURE

As a special administrative region, Hong Kong enjoys a high degree of autonomy, as its political and judicial systems operate independently from those of mainland China. Enshrined in the Hong Kong Basic Law, the territory's constitutional document, which outlines the system of governance of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, the region maintains its capitalist economic system and guarantees the rights and freedoms of its people. The primary pillars of government are the Executive Council, the civil service, the Legislative Council, and the Judiciary.

ECONOMY

Characterised by free trade and low taxation, Hong Kong's service economy is regarded as one of the world's most laissez-faire economic policies. It has been named the freest market economy by the Heritage Foundation Index of Economic Freedom. Hong Kong is also one of the world's largest banking centres with solid external net assets held by banks and deposit-taking institutions.

POPULATION

The territory's population in 2014 was 7.2 million, making it one of the most densely populated areas in the world with an overall density of some 6,300 people per square kilometre. About 93.6% of the people of Hong Kong are of Chinese descent, while the remaining 6.4% is composed of non-ethnic Chinese, including South and East Asians, as well as Europeans, and North Americans.

LANGUAGE

Hong Kong's de facto official language is Cantonese, a variety of Chinese originating from Guangdong province to the north of Hong Kong. English is also an official language and signs displaying both Chinese and English are common throughout the territory.

TAXATION

Companies registered in Hong Kong are not taxable provided that no transaction is carried out in Hong Kong. If this is not the case, the tax rate rises to 16.5% on profits made during the year. The Hong Kong tax authorities will send out a form entitled "Profits Tax Return" 18 months after the registration of the company. This is the moment to ask for "offshore" status, if applicable. Prior to the annual renewal of your company, SFM will contact you to collect the company's bank statements and other supporting documents and prepare the account and audit works in order to deal with the tax declaration and to file the PTR (Profits Tax Return) and ER (Employer Return) with the Hong Kong authorities. Profits Tax Returns must, as a general rule, be submitted within one month from the date that they are issued. If the tax return is not submitted by the due date, it is considered as an offence, and will be subject to government penalty. If the company does not carry out any transaction then the "Nil" profit tax return status will be submitted.

"OFFSHORE" STATUS

A Hong Kong Limited Company will be liable for tax if:

- it has its own premises in Hong Kong and employs staff;
- the company is partly or wholly managed on Hong Kong territory;
- its client base is in Hong Kong;
- its suppliers are in Hong Kong; or
- material destined for sale is stocked in Hong Kong.

If none of these conditions apply, at the customer's request, SFM will file an application to the Hong Kong authorities with supporting documentary evidence for "offshore" status. Once the tax department agrees to the claim, it will be valid for three to four years. It should be noted that as Hong Kong is a special administrative area, it is entirely permissible to conduct business with China without being subject to tax.

DOUBLE TAX TREATY

Hong Kong has comprehensive double tax agreements with Austria, Bangladesh, Belgium, Brunei, Canada, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Ethiopia, Faroes, Fiji, Finland, France, Germany, Greenland, Guernsey, Hungary, Iceland, Indonesia, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Jersey, Jordan, Kenya, Korea, Kuwait, Laos, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Macao SAR, Mainland China, Malaysia, Maldives, Malta, Mauritius, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, Qatar, Russia, Seychelles, Singapore, South Africa, Spain, Sri Lanka, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom, United States, and Vietnam respectively to relieve taxation on income, such as, dividends, interest income, and royalties. The Hong Kong Inland Revenue Department allows a deduction for foreign tax paid on a turnover basis in respect of income which is also subject to tax in Hong Kong.
